Integrated Child Protection Scheme and its Aim

ICPS or the Integrated Child Protection Scheme is a Centrally Sponsored Scheme of the Ministry of Women and Child Development, Government of India, implemented in partnership with the state Governments and Civil Society Organizations (CSO). ICPS aims to establish a system that will efficiently and effectively protect children, based on the cardinal principles of "Protection of Child Rights" and the "Best interest of the Child".

Objectives of Integrated Child Protection Scheme

- To institutionalize essential services and strengthen structures;
- To enhance capacities at all levels;
- To create a database and knowledge base for child protection services;
- To strengthen child protection at family and community level;
- To ensure appropriate inter-sectoral response at all levels;
- To raise public awareness. Guiding Principles of Integrated Child Protection Scheme

Guiding Principles of Integrated Child Protection Scheme

- Child protection is a primary responsibility of the family and other stakeholders;
- A loving and caring family is the best place for the child;
- Privacy and confidentiality;
- Non-stigmatization and non-discrimination;
- Prevention and reduction of vulnerabilities; institutionalization of children is the last resort
- Child centered planning and implementation;
- Technical excellence, Code of Conduct
- Good governance, accountability and responsibility.

Focus of Integrated Child Protection Scheme

ICPS will focus on the following activities:

- Mapping needs and services for children and families at risk.
- Preparing child protection plans at all levels - state, district, block and village;
- Strengthening service delivery mechanisms and improving the quality of services provided;
- Promoting and strengthening non-institutional family-based care programme;
- Developing capacity of service providers;
- Strengthening knowledge base, awareness and advocacy;
- Establishing an integrated, live, web-based database on children;
- Monitoring and evaluation;
- Building partnerships for child protection at all levels and strengthening linkages with other bodies and institutions.

Who will benefit from Integrated Child Protection Scheme ?

The scheme will target the following categories of children:

Expected outcome of Integrated Child Protection Scheme

It is expected that through the effective implementation of ICPS:

- Children living in vulnerable situations will have access to child protection services by means of greater awareness at the family and community level;
- Children in institutional care will have better standards of care and quality services;

- An increasing number of abandoned children will be placed in family-based non-institutional/ alternative care such as adoption or foster care, rather than languishing in institutions.

What are the statutory mechanisms to be established?

The statutory mechanisms, as per the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000 and Amendment Act 2006, are as follows:

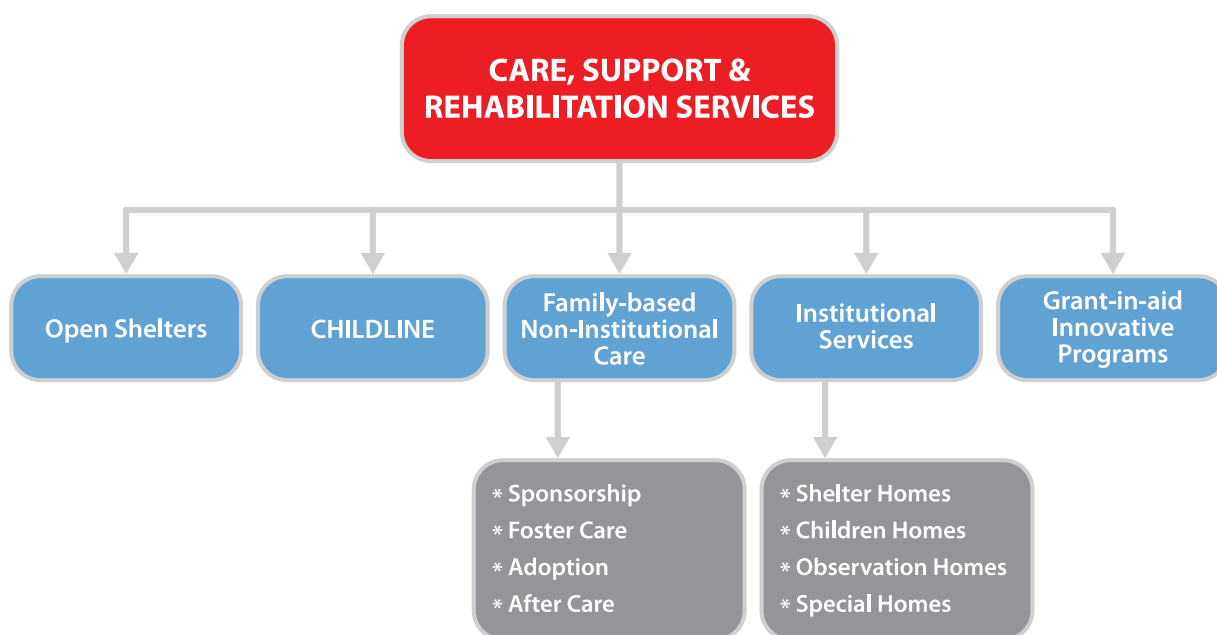

- Child Welfare Committee (CWC)
- Juvenile Justice Board (JJB)
- Special Juvenile Police Unit (SJPU)

Every district will have a CWC, a JJB, and an SJPU.
